

OREGON SEED ASSOCIATION

MID-WINTER MEETING EVENTS 2023

WINTER WORKSHOP: JAN. 18

MID-WINTER MEETING: JAN. 19

STRENGTH FOR TODAY, HOPE FOR TOMORROW

Preliminary Agenda

January 18, 2023: Winter Workshop

12:30 pm

Registration Opens

1:00-1:50 pm

OSA 101

In this workshop we'll explore the Oregon Seed Association: who we are, what we do, and how we support our membership. We will discuss how you can implement the OSA committees to tackle concerns and issues within the industry and how you can be involved.

Presented by Oregon Seed Association

2:00-4:00 pm

Block A:

Intro to Advocating

Learn how to get involved in advocacy, handle a meeting with an elected official and/or staff, how to tell your story, and make an effective case to policymakers. This workshop will give you the confidence and skills to advocate for agriculture in Oregon.

Presented by Pac/West Lobby Group

Letters of Credit

Help alleviate your fears and confusion about letters of credit by attending this workshop with more in-depth coverage and examples of documentation, procedures, and navigating banks and fees.

Presented by Double River Forwarding

2:00-4:00 pm

Block B:

Risk Management

This workshop will identify and analyze industry specific risk and discuss how to develop a tailored risk management plan for your company. You will also have then opportunity to ask questions and hear from an industry leader in the seed insurance sector.

Presented by Hagan Hamilton Insurance Solutions & Philadelphia Insurance Companies

Blocking and Bracing

This workshop will be beneficial for any employees responsible for supervising and/or loading cargo for transport. Discussion will include regulations/liability related to shipping, understanding the forces that may affect your cargo, and a live demonstration of proper blocking and bracing techniques.

Presented by MODE Transportation
